

2008 Great PA Cleanup Volunteer Recognition Party

Clean
Pittsburgh
Commission

WHO: The Clean Pittsburgh Commission, a network of city departments, non-profits, individuals, and community groups working to improve the environmental quality of life of Pittsburgh residents

and

Waste Management

and

PA Department of Environmental Protection (PA DEP)

WHAT: Volunteers who participate in this year's Great PA Cleanup are invited to a recognition party on Saturday, April 19, 2008 at the Vietnam Veterans Pavilion in Schenley Park, Pittsburgh. In appreciation for their hard work and cleanup efforts, volunteers are encouraged to relax and enjoy a free lunch, live entertainment, games and giveaways. Event sponsors will conduct an awards ceremony and prize raffle at 1:30 p.m. For more information and to RSVP, cleanup coordinators are advised to contact Laura Ludwig, CPC Vice-Chair, at 412-621-7863, ext. 12, or lludwig@opdc.org.

WHEN: Saturday, April 19, 2008 from 12pm to 3pm (volunteers may arrive as early as 11:30am)

WHERE: Vietnam Veterans Pavilion, located on Overlook Drive in Schenley Park, Pittsburgh
PARKING: Park along Overlook Drive—walk up the driveway to get to the Pavilion

Members of the Clean Pittsburgh Commission include:

- City of Pittsburgh
- Citizens Against Litter
- Oakland Planning and Development Corporation
- Operation Better Block
- Pennsylvania Resources Council, Inc.
- Allegheny CleanWays
- Tacoma Street Block Association